

New York State Archives for Service and Funding for Flood-damaged Records:

Services and Funding Available for Flood-damaged Records

http://www.archives.nysed.gov/a/records/mr\_disaster\_services\_funding.shtml

Applying for Disaster Assistance from FEMA: Information for Governments

http://www.archives.nysed.gov/a/records/mr\_FEMA\_disaster\_assistance.shtml

Sources of Assistance for Non-Profit Organizations

http://www.archives.nysed.gov/a/records/mr\_disaster\_assistance\_non-profits.shtml

Remediation of Mold

http://www.archives.nysed.gov/a/records/mr\_mold\_remediation.shtml

From the New York State Library & Archives

The State Office of Emergency Management provides assistance, including access to products and recovery services. Go to: <http://www.dhSES.ny.gov/>

The State Library and State Archives have resources to assist you. Contacts, services, and resources are listed below by your organization type. The State Library and State Archives are also responsible for gathering information about the extent of damage to your building and/or collections as well as recovery costs. Contact Barbara Lilley (blilley@mail.nysed.gov) or Maria Holden (mholden@mail.nysed.gov) to report the impact of the storm on your organization.

Libraries:

State Library staff are available to provide advice on recovering collections. Contact the State Library at (518) 486-4864. For additional resources, go to <http://www.nysl.nysed.gov/libdev/cp/index.html>

State Agencies:

Archives staff are available to provide advice on recovering damaged records. When agency records are believed to constitute a hazard to human safety or health or to property, the agency records management officer may request authorization from the State Archives to destroy or dispose of such records immediately. Contact the Archives at (518) 474-6926 or (518) 473-4254. For a complete listing of State Archives disaster services and resources, go to: http://www.archives.nysed.gov/a/records/mr\_disaster.shtml

Local Governments:

The State Archives Regional Advisory Officers are available by phone/email to provide advice on recovering archives and records and to assist you in applying for a recovery grant. Local governments may be eligible for up to $20,000 in disaster recovery funding for damaged records. Contact your Regional Advisory Officer http://www.archives.nysed.gov/a/directories/dir\_staff.shtml#Advisory or call the Archives at (518) 474-6926 or (518) 473-4254. For a complete listing of State Archives disaster services and resources, go to: http://www.archives.nysed.gov/a/records/mr\_disaster.shtml

Other Cultural Institutions (museums, historical societies, non-government archives):

State Archives and State Library staff are available to provide advice on recovering collections. Contact the State Library at (518) 486-4864 or the State Archives at (518) 474-6926 or (518) 473-4254.

AIC - CERT

The American Institute for Conservation of Historic & Artistic Works (AIC) has a hotline available for cultural institutions to call during emergencies or disasters ~ for 24-hour assistance from trained volunteers, call (202) 661-8068 or click here to learn more about this initiative.

AIC-CERT responds to the needs of cultural institutions during emergencies and disasters through coordinated efforts with first responders, state agencies, vendors and the public. Volunteers can provide advice and referrals by phone at the number above. Requests for onsite assistance will be forwarded by the volunteer to the AIC-CERT Coordinator and Project Director for response. Less urgent questions can also be answered by emailing info@conservation-us.org.

Heritage Preservation Emergency Taskforce

<http://www.heritagepreservation.org/PROGRAMS/TFcurrent.html>

Museum Association of New York - Resources for Flood Damaged Museums/Heritage Organizations

www.manyonline.org

National Trust for Historic Preservation Disaster Response Resources

<http://www.preservationnation.org/resources/technical-assistance/disaster-recovery>

NTHP's Resources for Responding to Flooding

<http://www.preservationnation.org/resources/technical-assistance/disaster-recovery/flood-response.html>

NTHP's Response for Local Organizations and Main Streets

<http://www.preservationnation.org/resources/technical-assistance/disaster-recovery/local-orgs-response.html>

Managing Collections after a disaster

<http://ncptt.nps.gov/2011/managing-collections-in-a-disaster/>

How to Save Wet Books

<http://www.heritagepreservation.org/savewetbooks/index.html>

NCPTT Disaster Management and Mitigation Resources

<http://ncptt.nps.gov/2011/disaster-planning-supplementary-disaster-management-and-mitigation-resources/>

FEMA: Recovering and Coping with Flood Damaged Property

<http://www.fema.gov/hazard/flood/coping.shtm>

Tips for Drying out a Flood Damaged Building

<http://www.hpo.ncdcr.gov/dryout.htm>